To Participants in the Program of the Chicago, Illinois, Meeting:

This is to remind you that a copy of your paper presented at the annual meeting has not yet been received. Since we have a printer's deadline to meet, we can give no assurance that your contribution will be included in the PAPERS AND PROCEEDINGS unless your manuscript is in our hands by January 27.

A complete record of all papers and discussions accepted for publication greatly enhances the value of the volume, and we are making every effort to get the volume ready for publication on schedule; hence we urge you to give this your immediate attention.

To Chairmen of Sessions:

Please send what papers you may have on hand immediately and ask participants to send tardy papers directly to this office.

Harold F. Williamson

Dear Professor Williamson:

At the meetings in December, Mancur Olson informed me that as a result of my oral comments at the session on his paper, he was planning to revise and expand parts of it, which might affect the cogency of my comments. Therefore, I awaited his revisions before putting my comments in final form for publication. I did not receive his revised paper until February -- already past the original deadline for submission -- which is the main reason for my delay in sending this. (I enclose a copy of Olson's letter to me forwarding his revised paper.)

I hope it will not prove too late to include my comments in the proceedings.

Sincerely,

Daniel Ellsberg

Mr. Daniel Ellsberg,
RAND Corporation,
1700 Main Street,
Santa Monica, California. 90406

Dear Mr. Ellsberg:

I very much appreciate the difficulty you encountered in revising your paper before sending it to us for inclusion in the PAPERS AND PROCEEDINGS. Unfortunately, however, we have reached the "point of no return" in that copy for all nineteen sessions has gone to the printer and it is impossible at this late stage to add anything further.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary.
